“An elegant and gently flavoured Pinot Gris displaying citrus, apple and apricot characters on the nose. The palate is ripe and smooth with a juicy mouthfeel and bright acidity providing a lingering dry finish. A nicely balanced and refreshing wine.”

Sam Kim – Wine Orbit – April 2010

4 Stars

“Fleshy and creamy, this instantly attractive wine was blended from Bendigo (Central Otago) and Waitaki valley (North Otago) grapes. Hand-picked and mostly handled in tanks, it is deliciously scented and smooth, with ripe, stone-fruit flavours.”

2008 Highlights (Hawkes Bay)

4 Stars

“From a subsidiary of Craggy Range, this Hawke’s Bay wine is refined, with mouthfilling body and pure, peachy, slightly spicy and leesy flavours. It shows good mouthfeel and texture, with a dry, lingering finish.”

Michael Cooper’s New Releases – Winestate – May/June 2009

This is Pinot Gris in the characterful Alsace style, rather than the understated (we’re being polite) Italian grigio style. Its full and rich with ripe, speiced peach flavours and a clean dry finish – and it carries its 14% alcohol well
